THE DAILY AND WEEKLY HERALD more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

SUNDAY, APRIL 23, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Information has been received from Panama under date of the 20th instant which announces that McDonald and Small, the notorious stage and express robbers, entered the store of Harris & Pines, and drew three pistols on the clerk. They robbed the safe of $1,000 in gold coin, and checks to the amount of another thousand dollars.

It is reported that Lord Lyttleton committed suicide.

The Turks estimate the number of insurgents killed and wounded in the late engagements at 800.

Queen Victoria arrived at Paris on the 21st and proceeded to Cherbourg on her way to England. President MacMahon paid his respects.

An Indianapolis dispatch says that the camp meeting grounds of the Methodist church at Tarentum have been burned down. There were over fifty cottages. The loss is $50,000, and insurance $20,000.

The creditors of Duncan, Sherman & Co. have elected Charles E. Strong assignee. The New York Times' Washington correspondent says that astounding stories are afloat concerning Whately, who, it is reported, intends to go before the Committee and swear that he was a member of the whisky ring, and implicate Babcock and others.

A. H. Harris, agent for Goodall, Nelson & Perkins steamship line, and clerk at the Washington Hotel, Monterey, committed suicide at 10 o'clock Friday night.

Ex-Congressman Dickey died yesterday at Lancaster, Pa.

The examination of Revenue Collector Sedgewick has been concluded. All correct. The Senate has confirmed Schaeffer as Chief Justice of Utah.

It rained in San Diego and Sacramento yesterday.

Yuma had a slight earthquake yesterday. A man named Thomas Smith, hostler at Payne's stage station, committed suicide on the road to Julian, on Thursday.

THE EXPRESS says there were "many significant absences" from the Legislative banquet on Friday night. This cannot mean the two Dromedaries of the Express, as their absence attracted no more attention than their presence would have done.

THE ALTA calls the exposure of the President "a desperate Democratic effort to besmirk the reputation of President Grant," and the Republican of this city concludes that the whole story is a Democratic falsehood. When did WILLIAMS and WHITELY turn Democratic?

PETER ANDERSON a colored gentleman of San Francisco who for twelve years has published the Pacific Appeal, but never held a Federal office yet when he becomes a candidate for delegate to the Republican State Convention, the Post charges that he is a Custom House employee.

The Express did not print the Press toast responded to by W. W. CRIEIGHTON at the Legislative banquet on Friday evening. This is jealousy of a cotemporary run mad, and savors of a littleness compared with which a mustard seed seems large enough for a Centennial exhibition.

In another column of this morning's HERALD will be found a document relative to the estate of TEMPLE & WORKMAN which will astonish the people of Los Angeles. It is remarkable that though this document was filed in the Clerk's office yesterday morning, not a word relative to it could be found in last evening's Express.

THE LEMON TREE PEST.

We were shown yesterday by Mr. LESLIE F. GAY the underground trunk of a small China lemon tree, which bore on its surface abundant proof of the cause of decay, recently manifested by many lemon trees in this vicinity. With the naked eye the devastating insect could be plainly seen, and by the aid of a powerful glass, both the grub and its work were visible in a number of places on the root. There appears to be two kinds of insect, or one in two different stages of existence. Both are transparent, but one is beetle shaped, while the other is a long thin worm, much resembling in appearance a very small angle worm. The beetle eats its way into the bark, while the worm performs its work by boring, gimblet fashion, directly into the tree. In doing this it wriggles its body back and forth, thereby indicating that it cuts its way with a leverage obtained from the weight of its body. On the root shown us, the bark for about the space of six inches had been entirely removed by the insects, leaving the wood bare and dry. This enemy to the lemon, lime, and in some instances, the orange, is doing much damage, and means for its destruction must be devised. Mr. GAY is giving the subject his undivided attention, and we trust he will soon be able to announce the discovery of a cheap and effective method for the removal of an enemy which now threatens the destruction of many of our semi-tropical fruit trees.

Edmund Doak, agent of the popular Singer sewing machine in our city, yesterday returned from a short business trip to San Francisco.

THE SITUATION.

It becomes all good citizens, as we are upon the eve of both a Centennial celebration and a Presidential election, to calmly consider the situation, both in regard to the future and the epoch in our country's career that we propose to celebrate. A century has accomplished much for us—what the second hundred years will unfold is known only to the Omnipotent. We are nominally at peace; internal dissensions are virtually ended, a sort of prosperity prevails, and there appears to be a general spirit of congratulation upon the condition of national affairs. It is not time now, as we are turning the centennial corner, to expatiate upon what we have already accomplished, but it seems eminently proper that we should pause upon the threshold of the second century and contemplate the possibilities of the future. In many matters we have as a nation advanced; have we progressed in an equal degree in other matters of national moment? Have we as yet solved the problem of Republicanism—or, more properly speaking, of Democracy? As a nation we have passed through an experience that no other people ever endured, and have come out from the ordeal nominally harmonious and united. The career through which we have passed has developed certain facts in political economy that are, after all, positive paradoxes. Such is the result of the Democratic experiment. Incongruities come at all times in rapid and ill-timed contact, and the adjustment of these jarring coincidences taxes the intellect of the ablest for a perfect solution and reconciliation. The present epoch places us as a people in a peculiar position, and upon the result of the popular action during the coming few months in a great measure depends the future of our country. Civil strife has ended in fact, and confessedly harmony exists throughout the land; and yet we are forced to ask the question whether we are to-day as stable in our situation as we were twenty years ago as a nation. The very experiences we have passed through have necessarily developed peculiar characteristics among our people, have engendered certain features in our community that demonstrate a state of affairs in our body politic that most assuredly require a corrective. By whom shall the remedy be applied? From one end of the country to the other the people have already spoken. The rottenness and corruption of the last ten years have become so palpable in official circles, and have been traced so near to the head of our Government, which like Caesar's wife, should be beyond suspicion, that in this our Centennial year we are called upon with imperative demand to pause and take a calm view of the situation. The opportunities offered for corruption, and the inducements for fraud during the existence of the present regime have been such that it would be difficult for human nature in its purest state to resist the temptation. That gross crimes, and monstrous malfeasance exist there can be no doubt, for every hour is filled with positive proof of the corruption of our time. Certain it is that a remedy must be applied, and to the Conservative element of our community we must look for relief; and in view of this, fact it behooves the Democracy both of our State and nation to see to it that upon the eve of the most important Presidential election we have ever witnessed we should make no mistake either in policy or action. The din of war has ceased—concessions have been made upon both sides, and the memories of the celebrations at Concord and Lexington will ever be cherished with grateful regard; and in view of the fact that this spirit of harmony does exist between the two sections of our country that were once estranged, it becomes us as a people to demonstrate the perpetuity and solidity of our Government by taking a new departure in the way of correcting the errors of the time, and to the Democratic party the country looks for the remedy. A great and honorable future lies before it, and it will be criminal if it allows the opportunity to pass. Prudence, honesty of purpose, and vigor in spirit should be our animating spirit, and a national success cannot fail us. The Napoleonic maxim that a blunder is a crime, applies to the Democracy of to-day. It has been said that he who profits from his own experience is wise, but that he who profits from the experience of others is wiser, applies to the Democracy and Conservatives of to-day. In a few weeks the Democracy will meet in Convention to choose delegates to a national gathering for the selection of Presidential candidates. A programme for the Centennial campaign will then be adopted, the effect of which will be felt for years to come. Reform in the administration of national affairs is imperative, and to us the golden opportunity is offered. Consistency, charity and firmness should be our guiding spirit, and in the selection of our Representatives at the national Convention we should choose the best and most reliable of the conservative talent in the State. This is no time for wavering. Positive action alone will save our party and restore the equilibrium of our political system. The necessities of the time demand circumspection on the part of the Democracy, and we sincerely hope that in our primaries as well as in the State Convention the party will be governed by calm and sober wisdom; success is then sure.

Rev. Mr. Guard will arrive by the Senator to-day.

The Railroad Commissioners.

Some curiosity is manifested by thinking men of the community as to the character of the Board of Railroad Commissioners the Governor will appoint on or before the fifteenth proximo. We apprehend that no uneasiness need be felt on the subject by either the people or the railroad corporations. It will be remembered by those who read Governor IRWIN's message, that in that able and comprehensive document the Governor earnestly urged the passage of a bill similar to that drafted by Senator O'CONNOR, and which is now a law of the land. In recommending the enactment of such a law, Governor IRWIN was actuated by a sincere desire for the adoption of a measure which would effectually and finally remove all causes of antagonism between the people and railroad corporations. He felt that such a law administered by men of practical minds and general information would bring about so perfect an understanding between the shipper and carrier that no conflict could arise and a community of interests be established which would result beneficially to all. Entertaining these views and having his suggestions carried out by the Legislature to a point which leaves the completion of the work in his own hands, it is a reflection on his judgment and an impugment of his honesty to suppose that the Governor will mar all by the appointment of an incompetent Commission. He fully understands the duties which will devolve upon the Board, and he will use the utmost care in selecting Commissioners who will faithfully and impartially discharge those duties. He will select neither the partisans of railroad corporations, nor those anti-railroad fanatics who would render inoperative those railroads we now have and forever prevent the building of others. He will endeavor to, and we believe, will succeed in finding a Board of Commissioners who understand the wants of the country and the necessities of the public; who will study the problem until they have found its solution; who will neither ignore the people nor refuse justice to railroads; who will seek to conciliate rather than exasperate, and become the mutual friend of both the people and the railroad corporations. He will appoint a Board that will hear understandingly, act without prejudice and decide without malice. A Board of Commissioners familiar with the people, the country, its resources and its wants, and possessing a general knowledge of railroads and their operation, will, if free from prejudice or preference, accomplish great good and be enabled to report to the next Legislature that a feeling of perfect harmony prevails throughout the State between the people and the railroad companies. We are confident the Governor hopes to bring about such a result as this, and we have no fear but that he will appoint Commissioners in whose ability to remove all grounds for complaint, smooth down all asperities and establish a feeling of good will and mutual confidence, he has an abiding faith.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, 22d.—The Young Men's Universal Reform Society held an anti-Chinese meeting last evening to take active steps in prosecuting the undertaking of chincing the Mongolian. It is decided by the organization that a committee of twenty men shall constantly act in reporting to the secretary of the society the names of firms and persons who directly or indirectly employ Chinese. The committee on Supervisors when called upon to report, stated that a petition sent before that Honorable body had received no attention whatever and was therefore a failure.

Three days racing was advertised to be given over Mayfield Driving Park to commence Thursday of this week. Bills were out, liberal purses were offered and a number of San Francisco horses were entered and went down to contend for the various premiums. On opening day it was discovered that one of the proprietors, named White, was not to be found, and it was finally ascertained that after borrowing various sums of money in this city and in Mayfield as well as selling a number of horses that did not belong to him, and committing various other irregularities he had departed. It is supposed that he took about $2,500 with him.

The counting of the funds in possession of the Collector of Sidewalks has been completed with satisfactory results. Everything was on hand or accounted for. The affairs at Virginia City and Sacramento in the Collectors offices were found equally satisfactory condition.

It is rumored that a clerk in a large news agency firm here is minus both in money and person.

It was a significant coincidence that with the announcement by telegraph of the meeting of the Panama Railroad Directors yesterday at New York, at which it is reported resolutions were passed which must tend to still further increase the Pacific Mail financial complications, the agents of the Panama Company here attached the stores and coal of the steamship City of New York, which is advertised to sail on Monday for Australia. The attachment was served last night by the Sheriff and the property seized. The vessel itself was beyond legal process, for the reason that the Mail Company does not own her. A. P. Bacon, the agent of the Mail Company, says that the sailing of the City of New York will not be delayed, as the company will not be able to give the necessary bonds which it will be remembered as attached a couple of weeks ago, still remains in the custody of the Sheriff, and when she will be released is a matter of conjecture. It was reported in New York yesterday that the Central and Union Pacific had obtained control of the Pacific Mail stock and that negotiations were in progress for a lease of the Panama railroad. The agents of the latter company are reticent about the matter but freely admit that such an arrangement is highly probable.

Sailed, schooner Annie, Staffer for San Pedro.

The balance struck by Supervisor Hawley after an examination of the accounts of Collector Sedgewick shows a balance of ten dollars in Sedgewick's favor. The stamps, etc., on hand in the office amounted to more than $1,300,000.

The Bonanza firm has sold the Government $3,000,000 worth of bullion for coinage purposes.

Wm. H. Martin has been appointed emigration agent of California at the Centennial.

During the week there were 87 deaths in the city—52 males and 35 females.

Sentenced to be Hanged.
VIRGINIA, Nev., April 22.—Peter Dinkin, who was tried and convicted last week for murder of Daniel Corcoran last August, was to-day sentenced to be hanged on Friday, June 16th. The prisoner was much agitated upon receiving the sentence.

Delegates to the State Convention.
SAN JOSE, April 22.—The following named gentlemen were chosen to serve as delegates to the State Convention which is to meet at Sacramento on the 26th instant: Josiah Belden, E. E. Wade, Wm. H. Ware, Washington Clark, F. C. Thomas, J. H. Sargent, Cyrus Jones, Jno. Reynolds, J. H. Fleckerger, Jas. W. Kelly, E. Mason, J. B. Rendal, J. R. Well, Cornelius Finley and A. Rowley.

The Anaheim Gazette is responsible for the following: It is not often that our citizens are taken in by the Heathen Chinese. But yesterday one of the moon eyed cusses wandered through Centre street with a box under his arm, and questioned some of our sailors as regards their efficacy here. "You want to buy piggee?" Naturally surprised that pigs should be sold in such small boxes, one of our friends proceeded to examine. The "child-like and bland" requested him to apply his eye to a small hole in the box. Upon raising the slide to do so he was assailed by a swarm of bees emanating from the box aforesaid, which soon made him possessor of lively ideas to the effect, "That for ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the Heathen Chinese is peculiar."

The Board of Directors of the Spanish-American Mutual Benevolent Society will meet in the City Council chamber at two o'clock this afternoon, for the purpose of taking steps to properly celebrate the first anniversary of the organization.

CATHARTIC BITTERS.

A Card to the Public.

THESE Medicines, which are becoming so popular in the Southern portion of this State, are simply healing down all prejudice and opposition as regards their efficacy here, as they have been doing in San Francisco and other places. By their use, their irreparable influences, surely and speedily effected, the most incurables are at once shorn of their doubts. Those who have dreaded and suffered with those excruciating diseases,

Rheumatism & Liver Complaint,

May hail with joy the advent in their midst of these wonderful medicines, which the Doctor has labored for years to perfect, as a specific for the above diseases.

You that are suffering at once cast aside your prejudices, derived, and justify, from repeated failures. We ask that your hopes may revive, at least sufficiently to give this medicine a fair trial. We feel bound to do our duty, and in justice to Dr. Clark and the suffering thousands who may read this card, we, the undersigned residents of this county and vicinity, most earnestly speak from experience, and we assert most emphatically the efficacy of the above medicines is irreparable. Our friends, and even strangers, may ponder over these remarks, but if the candid truth from our lips rubs them of their incredulity sufficiently to place themselves, with kindling hope, under the treatment of Dr. Clark, with his celebrated Family Medicines, we well know that some good will accrue from our efforts, and most heartily say

God Speed the Right.

TEMPLE & WORKMAN.

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS.

A complaint, which if true, reveals a series of baronies.

A complaint has been entered in the District Court against Temple & Workman, E. F. Spence and D. Freeman, assignees, by Charles J. Ellis, Thomas R. Bard, Kern Valley Bank; Benjamin F. Thompson, Henry North, Hiram Quimby, John S. Thompson, guardian of Mary E. McClellan, et al.; J. M. Griffith, and S. J. Lynch, composing the firm of Griffith Lynch & Co., Louis Pfeifferberger and C. A. Nolte, comprising the firm of Pfeifferberger & Co., and John Joas as plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs complain against the defendants and allege that on the 24th day of January, A. D. 1876, the said Temple & Workman were and had been for three years prior thereto partners doing business as bankers at the city of Los Angeles.

It is then recited that the plaintiffs in this case have obtained judgments against the defendants in amounts aggregating $81,498.38 and that each of the judgments in favor of the plaintiffs has been returned wholly unsatisfied.

That on the 13th of January 1876 the said Temple & Workman made two assignments purporting to convey all their property to defendants, Spence and Freeman in trust.

That the said Spence and Freeman qualified under said trust and entered upon its duties and have collected a very large sum of money and other property from the assets of said assignments, amounting in all to the value of over five hundred thousand dollars.

That after the making of said assignments on the 13th day of January it was filed.

That on February 2d 1876 the said Temple & Workman made a pretended inventory of their joint and several property and of their liabilities.

That the said assignments were not made in good faith, but with intent to delay and defraud the creditors of Temple & Workman.

That it was not intended to convey all of their property to said assignees, but on the contrary thereof the said Temple & Workman did fraudulently conceal large amounts of their joint and several properties to the value of two hundred thousand dollars, and did wholly omit the same from the said inventory made by them as aforesaid.

That said Temple & Workman did so conceal, among other things, a large sum of money in gold coin, amounting to fifty thousand dollars, which said last mentioned sum was received by said Temple & Workman at their said banking house and above the amounts paid out by them between the 6th of December A. D. 1875 and the date of said assignments.

That Temple & Workman did so conceal, among other things, a certain promissory note of one A. Brunson for the sum of twelve hundred and fifty dollars, the property of the said Temple & Workman, and that they did fraudulently conceal other promissory notes.

That said Temple omitted about three hundred dollars owing to him at the time of making the assignments from J. seph Mullaly.

That said Temple fraudulently concealed about four hundred head of cattle and one thousand head of sheep.

That on the 13th day of January, 1876, and after drawing said assignments the said Temple did fraudulently abstract from the assets of said firm of Temple & Workman $2,000 in gold coin and placed among the assets his check therefor ante-dated January 12th 1876.

That on the 13th day of January 1876 and after the drawing of said assignments the said Temple fraudulently abstracted from the assets of said firm $2,400 gold coin.

That on the 13th day of January one Thomas W. Temple, a son of F. P. F. Temple, with the consent of the latter, did fraudulently abstract from the assets of the firm $500 gold coin.

That at the time said assignments were made one Adolph Portugal was indebted to the said firm in the sum of $6,900 gold coin, that three days after said assignments were made the said Temple, fraudulently combining with said Portugal, to defraud the creditors of said firm, did cause the said indebtedness of Portugal to be satisfied on the books of said firm, and the said Temple then drew his check for the said sum of $6,900 in lieu of said Portugal's indebtedness to said firm, and ante-dated his check to Jan. 12, 1876, and placed the same among the assets of the firm and did fraudulently omit and conceal the indebtedness of said Portugal to the firm.

That said Temple claims as exempt from execution, as a homestead, certain real estate which he has falsely inventoried at $5,000 when the plaintiffs know it to be worth $25,000.

That said Wm. Workman claims as a homestead property falsely valued at $5,000 when it is worth $25,000.

That none of said property so concealed and omitted from said inventory as aforesaid, was ever delivered to said assignees.

That neither of said assignments was made in good faith, in that both provide for the payment of certain claims known to the said Temple & Workman to be false, and for the payment of more upon certain claims against said assignees than was justly due them.

That said inventory includes a certain pretended debt from said Temple & Workman to J. J. Mellus, Treasurer of the City of Los Angeles, when in fact no debt was due from said Temple & Workman to said Mellus.

That neither of said assignments was made in good faith in that on the 13th day of January 1876, the said Temple & Workman, well knowing the insolvency of said firm, of Temple & Workman, and the fact that each of said firm and while they were actually engaged in making said assignment to Spence & Freeman, the said Temple, with the sole purpose and intent of preferring one creditor over the others, did then fraudulently make, execute and deliver to one John D. Bicknell, a deed of conveyance to an undivided half interest in four certain houses and lots on Temple street, of the value of $6,000.

Wherefore the plaintiffs claim judgment:

I. That the said assignments and each of them are fraudulent and void as against the plaintiffs.

II. That the said Spence and Freeman account, under the direction of the Court, for all moneys and other properties received by them as aforesaid under said assignments or either of them, and in virtue thereof

III. That the plaintiffs' judgments be satisfied out of the same.

The complaint is sworn to by Chas. J. Ellis, and the plaintiffs' attorneys are Thom & Ross, Thompson & Ellis, Whitney & King.

Yesterdays one of the proprietors of one of the hotels of this city, while coming up from Santa Monica, was conversing with a passenger and while talking with him was approached by the conductor and informed that he had no right to talk to passengers on the train. The hotel proprietor was not traveling on the train free as a hotel runner, but as a passenger, having purchased a ticket for the round trip, paying therefor one dollar and a half. The party to whom he was talking was an old boarder of his house, and did not need soliciting to go there again. It appears the Santa Monica railroad company have farmed out the right to solicit baggage on their trains to one person, who charges for the delivery of the baggage, while the hotels, or at least some of them, carry baggage from the depot to the house free of charge. Travelers over this road will understand the situation hereafter.
